CHALLENGE
MCMLXIX

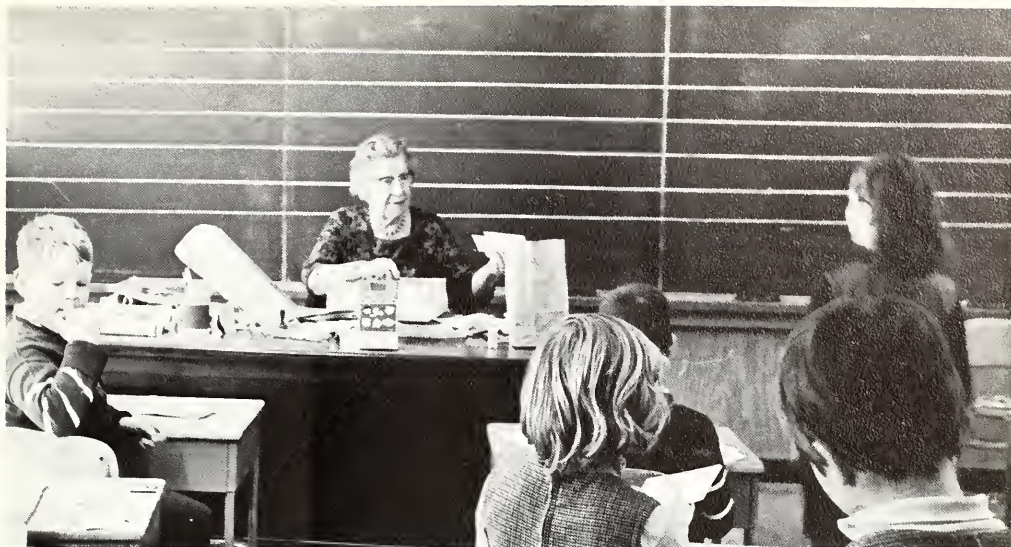

Foreword

The challenge of 1969 has been one of commemorating those unforgettable experiences that have made our days at L.C.D.S. We regret that we have only been able to present a few of the highlights of our final year at Country Day. Although there were many moments unable to be captured in pictures, they will always be remembered.

As we graduate and face the challenge of tomorrow we will try to use the experience and the knowledge that we have gained to better our future.

We would like to thank the entire Faculty for their help and encouragement in our scholastic pursuits.

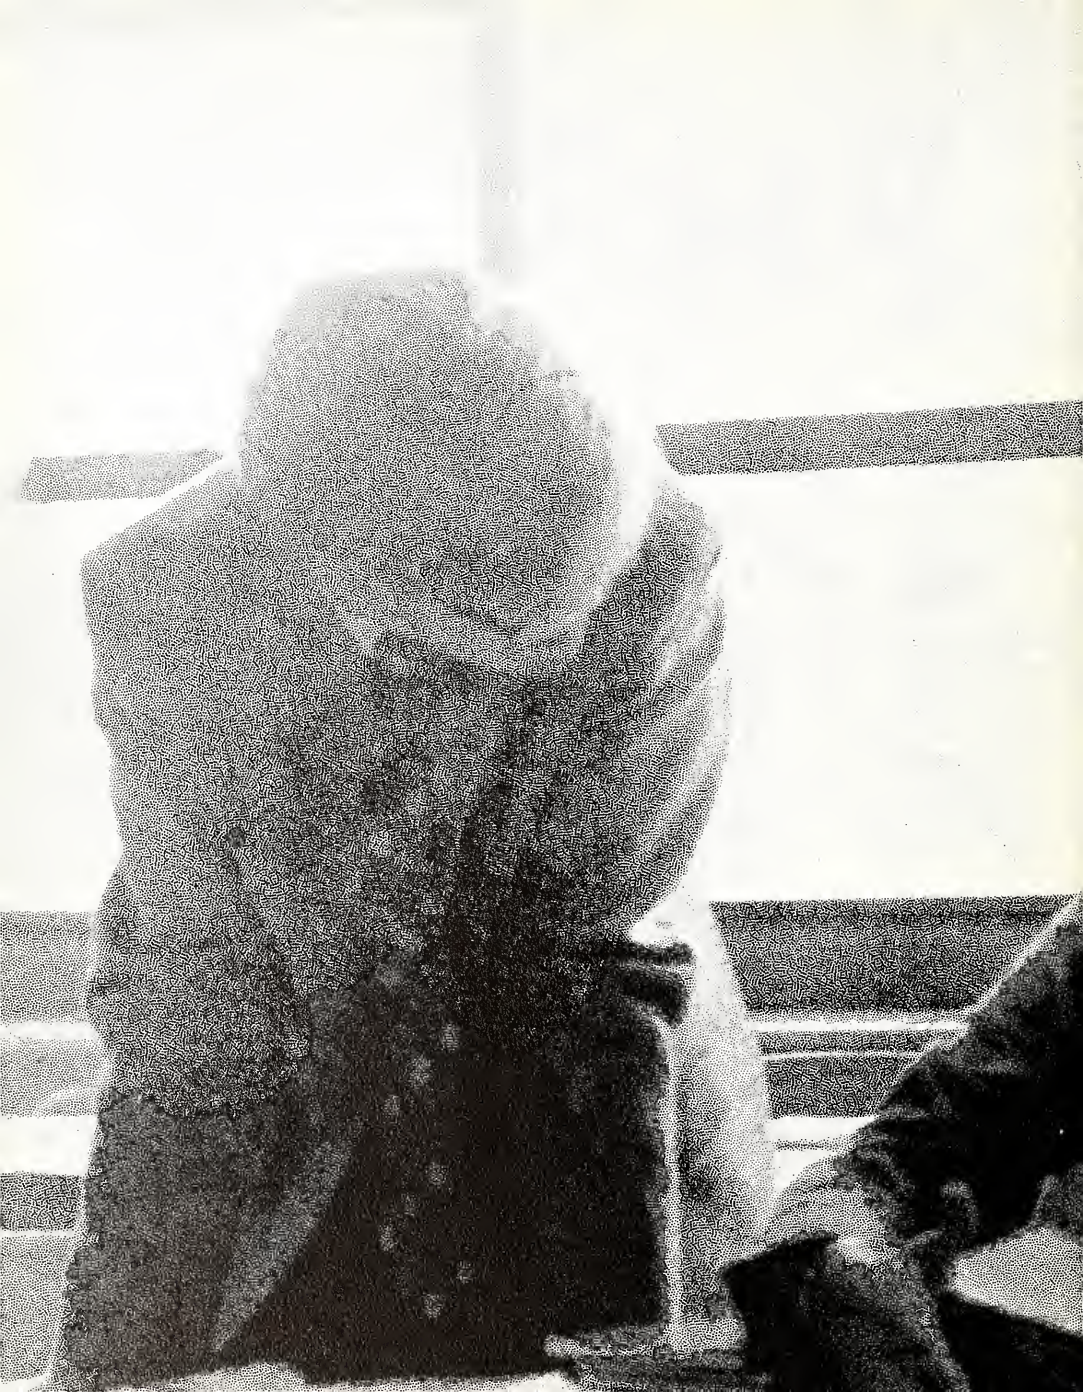

DEDICATION

Mrs. Evans has devoted twenty-five years of her life to our school. It has been a long time since she has had to keep us in line. At the time we probably didn't appreciate the discipline, but now we can look at her with nothing but respect and admiration. Her warm personality and kind manner gave a feeling of security to our young, unsettled temperments. With pleasure, and sincere gratitude, we thank you for all the years, and we dedicate this yearbook to you, Mrs. Evans.

SENIORS

To the Class of 1969:

You are most fortunate to be alive today, for you are living at a time when mankind is on the move. The question, "why?", is being asked by the youth of all countries and rightly so, for the institutions and societies which man has created are not perfect and they certainly must respond to the needs of 1969.

In college you will have a chance to study and discuss and eventually to create. The first two are of basic importance but the third is the ultimate challenge which you face. Without insight, dedication, preparation and hard work no creation is possible. Use your college years as a training ground so that we can say, as I am sure we will, "The Class of 1969 added to the betterment of man".

Godspeed!

Most Sincerely,

John A. Jarvis

Reflections

The class of 1969 originated with Carrie, Susie, and Pansy. Then in fourth grade the class gained Bill and Kathy. Those first four years were the ones of Halloweening through the halls waiting for Twinkle Weaver's mother to bring us candy, and educational things such as fun with Mrs. Ryder's "Think and Do Books", and field trips to the Holsum Bakery and the North Museum. When fifth grade came we were new "Middle Schoolers". That was the year of the H.M.S. Pinafore in which we were sailors. The sixth grade was noted for Mrs. Ryder's original "trapping games". And it was not until seventh grade when Chuck arrived that we gained any students are still in the senior class. We gave Mr. Schleager a giant wall map of the world. This year marked the beginning of notable things; the football team, the changing of classrooms, and the class parties, both in and out of school. Mike and Jim made their entrance in eighth grade. We shall never forget the year because of the "Bottle Blond" Renay Thomas and the start of Jay Wilkenson's unforgettable comments.

We became lowly freshmen in ninth grade. We had to start having organization and becoming more independent. Our greatest achievement that year was the $70 we made on a bake sale, a new school record. Tenth grade came and Mimi and Julie joined the class. Sophomore Cotillion, our first big project, with the ten foot Christmas Tree, turned out to be a success. Our junior year arrived with the addition of Grover and Sam. Thanks to the co-operation of the entire class, the French Dinner was a great experience, especially in making "imitation grape wine".

Finally our senior year arrived!! Tina came from Brazil, Linnea from California, and Barb from right here in Lancaster. College boards and college admissions caused much conversation and worry for most of the school year. But the senior room and our privileges gave us many memorable experiences and helped to relieve us of our problems. There was the last minute rush of the term papers and Mrs. Irion's English projects, when we thought we would never make it. We are now looking forward to the day, when among all the happy smiles, there will probably be a few tears.

"This is not the end. It is not even the beginning of the end. But it is, perhaps, the end of the beginning."

Hansberry, Grover Foehlinger, John Swanger. Third Row: Jim McQueen, Chuck Niquette, John Holden, Mr. Jarvis, John Farmer, Jim Herr.

The Student Government Organization is a non-academic body composed of all students in grades seven through twelve. Functioning according to a recently revised constitution through a council whose members are representatives of each class and headed by Jim Herr, it establishes non-academic regulations and plays an important part in school projects.

Beta Sigma

First Row: Pansy Alvarez- President, Crace Ting, Mrs. Johnston, Miriam Storb, Anne Mueller. Second

Row: John Lyons, Tina Moreira, Sarah Shand, Chris Quinn, Barb Hess.

The Beta Sigma Society, the school's oldest organization, functions as a charity and service organization for the community. With its funds acquired through bake sales, collections, and a movie night, it sponsors an Indian orphan, Marykutty. This year Beta Sigma has also provided students to aid in the local Head Start Program. Under the leadership of Pansy Alvarez, it has contributed greatly to the school as well as the community.

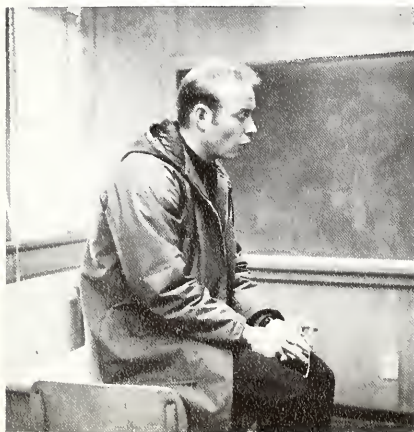

Athletic Association

The Athletic Association sponsors activities during the school year to aid in buying new gymnastic equipment and to encourage student participation in sports. This year the Athletic Association sponsored two roller skating parties, Family Day, the Athletic Banquet, two ski days and Field Day. Intramural Tournaments in ping-pong were started this year and played throughout the year. The two teams, Maroon and White, organized different activities to be played for team points. At the end of the year a plaque is presented to the team with the greatest amount of points.

Chorus

Niquette, Debbie Lyons, Donna Niquette, Chuck Niquette, Erica Wolf, William Campbell, Jeane Cope, Julianne Zygmunt, Kathy Myers, Mimi Picciano, Mrs. Sommers.

For the past two years the chorus has been under the direction of Mrs. Sommers. This year it was decided that representatives from each class would assist Mrs. Sommers in selecting music. Senior representatives were Grover FoeHLinger and Pansy Alvarez, sophomores were Grace Ting, and Robert Warshaw, and the Freshmen are Miriam Storb and Debbie Lyons. This year as part of the Christmas Festival of the Arts the chorus sang excerpts from AMAHL AND THE NIGHT VISITORS.

Herr, Mr. Poole, Carrie Nunan, Pam Lucarelli, Karen Stork, Paula Leicht, Alice Rowan, Ginny Holloway, Jim McQueen.

Under the supervision of Mimi Picciano, The CHALLENGE Staff has assembled the fifteenth annual record of some of the memories that have made the years at L. C. D. S. such good ones. The staff has experienced the pressures and problems of meeting deadlines. Often the strain seemed to much, yet the staff, always pulled through. This year, for the first time, juniors were added to the staff to learn the problems and responsibilities of handling a yearbook. They will be in charge of the first yearbook supplement, which will be published this summer. The staff has tried to be unique in its expression of ideas and we hope you feel we have been successful in our effort.

Impressions

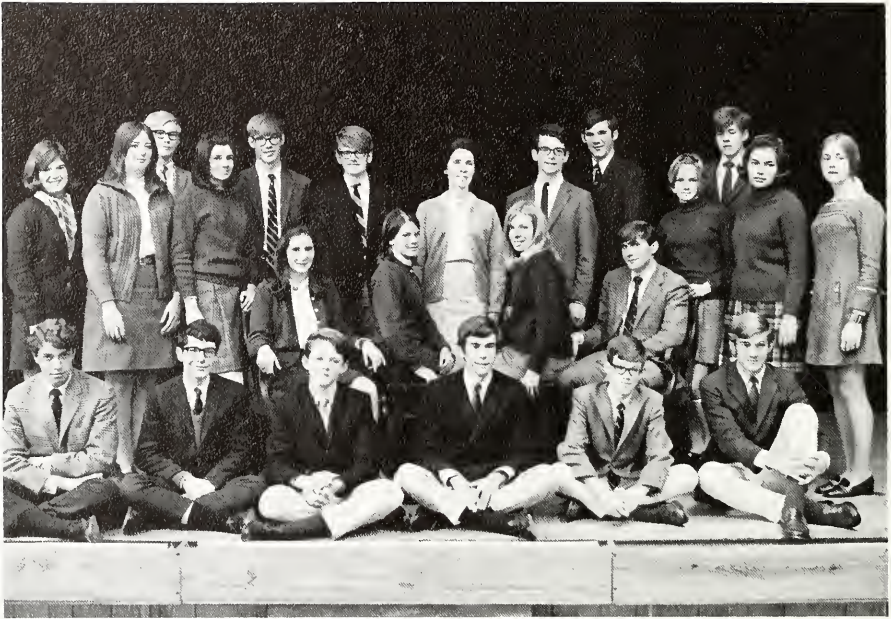

First Row: Jim McQueen, Robert Erdmann, Grace Ting, Jim Herr, Karen Stork, Mrs. Irion, William Campbell, John Mears. Second Row: Debbie Lyons, Barb Hess, Lisa Mann, Robert Warshaw, Grover Foehlinger, Mike Herr, Pam Lucarelli, Pansy Alvarez, Lois Herr.

IMPRESSIONS, the students literary publications of the school, uses both literary and artistic material. The Impressions' Staff, under the supervision of Mrs. Irion, accepts contributions from all the grades and publishes the magazine twice each school year. The playwriting contest of last year was so successful, that IMPRESSIONS again this year sponsored a contest.

Blackfriars

The Blackfriars Club was organized in 1962. The club is an honorary group which assumes responsibility for the production of the school plays. Students in grades nine through twelve are eligible for membership after compiling thirty points. These points are obtained by performing various services for the club. Late in the spring, the club initiates new members and elects its executive committee. This year the executive members are: Susan Getz- President, Carrie Nunan-Vice-President, Kathy Myers- Secretary, Jim McQueen- Business Manager. During the past school year, the Blackfriars presented the one act fantasy, WHAT MEN LIVE BY, based on a Tolstoy Narrative as a feature of the Christmas Festival of the Arts which the club sponsored in December. Our spring production was Oscar Wilde's THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST, a comedy filled with wit and irony. On the opposite page are a few scenes from the LOUD RED PARTRICK, which we produced in May, 1968.
